His most Singular good Friends
The SOCIETY of English Antiquaries.

AVING thro' the Encouragement and Assistance of several of your very curious and worthy Members, with great Difficulty and Expence, gone thro' this laborious Undertaking, I take the liberty to entreat your Honourable Patronage, and to offer it as a publick Monument and Token of my Respect and Gratitude to your Learned Body. And this I presume to do with the greater freedom, as being in good measure assured of your candid Acceptance; for as several Epistle Dedicatory.

veral of you have obliged the World with Works of this nature, you are thereby become the most proper Judges of this Performance: And will, I doubt not, as you are so excellently Qualified, abundantly improve the whole Design, by Correcting and Supplying any Errors or Defects, and imparting any Additions that come to hand. This, if you vouchsafe to do, and deign to pronounce favourably of these Collections, I shall rest satisfied that your Influence and Authority will protect and secure them from Censure and Reflection, and also recommend them to all True Lovers of English Antiquities; who, on account of your Patronizing them, will not only forbear to condemn, but approve of what is here published by

Your sincerely devoted

humble Servant

BROWNE WILLIS.

THE P R E F A C E.

AFTER the Publication of my former Volumes of Cathedrals, I found it expected from me, that I should proceed and exhibit Surveys of all the Cathedrals, in like manner as I had those of York, Durham, Carlisle, Chester, Lichfeild, Hereford, Worcester, Gloucester, Bristol, Lincoln, Ely, Oxford, Peterborough, in giving particular Descriptions of them, with Draughts of their Ichnographies and Uprights, and the Succession of their several Bishops and Dignitaries: But as this would have been a Work of Years, and of a very great Expence; neither of which my Circumstances would allow. And also as some Accounts have been already printed of these very Cathedrals unpublished by me (which I have referred to in my Prefatory Introductions before each Diocese) I had reason to think myself dispensed with in having done more than my Share, if I attempted only, by way of Supplement to the late published Antiquities of Canterbury, Rochester, Winchester, Norwich, Salisbury, &c. Cathedrals, what the Authors of them had pretermitted, viz. A Series of all the Churches and Chapels in their respective Dioceses, with an account of their Patrons and Appropriations, and as many of their Dedications as I could collect; but forasmuch as a Design of this nature may be look'd upon by some as a dry, trivial and unnecessary Undertaking, I shall here take liberty to offer some Arguments concerning the Usefulness of such a Work.

And in the First Place give me leave to premise the “ Imperfectness of “ what has been hitherto publish'd of our Ecclesiastical Livings, particu“ larly in the Valor Beneficiorum, which notwithstanding it has bore so “ many Editions, yet if it is compared with what I have inserted, by in“ cluding Donatives and Chapelries, there will be found an Addition or “ Supplement of near 3000 Churches and Chapels in England and Wales.

The P R E F A C E.

“ I may, in the Second Place remark, That by giving the Names of “ the Parishes in each County, will rectify the wrong Calculations made of “ them in our general Histories, where the real Number has been so long “ mistaken in every Shire, by Authors copying from one another

“ I may likewise, in the Third Place observe, How Instructive this Essay “ will be towards Correcting the Maps of our several Counties, which,
“ for the general part, are exceeding faulty; for without any regular di“ stinction of Parishes, they will, on Examination, be found superfluously
“ to give the Mark or Representation of a Church to several obscure Ham“ lets, and even to single Houses, and at the same time to omit, or give “ no Representation at all of several real and notified Parishes, inso“ much as divers of them are in all Counties wholly left out; and it is “ impossible to know by them which Places are Parishes, and which are “ not, and in what County and Diocese some of them lie.

Many other Observations might be made; and I might alledge and challenge a Merit, that as I have forbore giving any History of Ecclesiasticks, I have thereby avoided giving Offence, and any Imputation of Partiality, as has been most unjustly suggested, without the least Proof or Confutation: But having been tedious in such Particulars in my former Volumes, I must contract myself; and so pass on to speak somewhat of what is here published of the Names of the Churches, and the Dedications of them, with their Patrons and Appropriations.

How difficult and expensive a Task it was to amass and put together such Materials I need not repeat, nor plead for a favourable Allowance about new Patronages of some Livings; forasmuch as it is well known that several of them are, as I before observed, continually changing their Proprietors: All I shall urge in my defence is, that I have endeavoured to be as exact as I could. And, to this end, after I had digested my Papers, and reduced them into the Form thus given, I took care to transmit them into all the Dioceses here treated of, and humbly requested what Additions could be made before I sent them to the Press.

What Success I had in my Solicitations may easily be guessed, and allowance made for such Gentlemen who were pleased to correspond with me, through their over-looking, as I had done, Defects in my written Copy, occasioned by my being unacquainted with the Parishes in Counties at so great a distance.

Wherefore, that I might do all the Justice that I could to the Publick, and render what was here attempted as compleat as possible, I took the liberty to send afterwards my printed Sheets to my worthy Correspondents, and importuned them to minute down every Omission or Error that had escaped.

And

The P R E F A C E.

And that this has, with some Press Errors (which I had not opportunity given me of Revising) swelled the Review at the End to too great a Bulk, will I hope be excused, forasmuch as no new Essay was ever made so correct at first: And even the most noted Diocese of all England, viz. London, was, as Mr. Newcourt observes, printed extreamly Erroneous, in what related to the Parishes in it, before his Repertorium came forth.

How far wrong Accounts have contributed to, and produced right Informations is sufficiently known, as is here evinced from the very instancing of Mr. Newcourt's elaborate Work, which is so extensive a Design, and such an excellent Pattern, that as nothing of such an Undertaking has ever been begun before it; so it is to be feared that nothing will hereafter be attempted in so distinguish'd and exact a Method: However, I may adventure to say, that I have considerably improved what he has done, especially in the Account of the Dedications of the Churches, of which I have retrieved and added near a fourth Part, viz. 150 unknown to and omitted by him.

That Others may do the same by me, is not only my Hopes, but Desires and Wishes: It is with this End Purpose, and Prospect that this is sent abroad: For the Success and Reception of which, I may say I have little reason or occasion to be much concerned, when I advertise my Reader, that I requested and ordered only a small Impression to be printed, to answer the demand of the Curious, and particularly of such who were pleased to buy my former Volumes; for whose sake it is that I have laboured to compleat this Specimen, and gone thro' all the Dioceses and Counties in England and Wales in this manner, and have thus shadowed and scetcht out a rude Draught, the finishing of which is most humbly recommended to masterly Hands, whose Abilities, Fortunes, and Leisure better qualify and capacitate them to perform it.

I have nothing more to detain my Reader with, than returning Thanks to the Gentlemen who assisted me in these Collections, desiring their Acceptance of such poor Acknowledgments for the trouble I have given them. These principally were,

In CANTERBURY Diocese the Reverend Mr. David Jones, Rector of Great Hardress, a Gentleman under whom I received in my youthful Education many Advantages.

In ROCHESTER, Dr. John Thorp, a most eminent Physician in that City, and a curious Searcher into the Antiquities of it.

In WINCHESTER, the Reverend Mr. Brideoake and Mr. Furney, the two worthy Archdeacons of Winchester and Surrey in that Diocese.

In CHICHESTER, Mr. Registrar Dear.

In

The P R E F A C E.

In NORWICH, The Right Reverend the Lord Bishop of St. Asaph, whose Assistance in all my Publications, and Friendship shewed me in all Parts of Life, I cannot enough acknowledge.

In SALISBURY, The Reverend Mr. William Greenway, Rector of St. Martin's Church in that City, to whom I am infinitely indebted. As I am also,

In WELLS, to the Reverend Mr. Prebendary Thomas Ford, who spared for no Pains in extracting from old Wills the Dedications of the Churches in that Diocese, and in informing me in what other Particulars I consulted him.

In EXETER I was very generously help'd by Henry Rolle, Esq; one of the worthy Representatives of the County of Devon: And Thomas Tonkin of Pol Gorrin in the County of Cornwall, Esq; a most Learned and communicative Antiquary. It is owing to his great Friendship that the Account of Cornwall appears so compleat.

The Four WELCH Dioceses being collected and drawn up some Years ago, the Reason for republishing them here is referred to page 174.

I shall conclude all with repeating what I have so frequently requested, viz. That I shall be very thankful to receive any Additions or Corrections to what I have ever published, and greatly rejoice to lay hold of an opportunity of retracting any wrong Account of PERSONS or THINGS. For I can most solemnly averr, That all my Labours have been calculated with no other view whatsoever, except the improving, recommending and reviving the Study of Venerable Antiquity. And that it has been my constant and faithful Endeavour impartially to perform my Part, and with Integrity to set forth whatever I took in hand, according to my best Skill and Capacity.

Dioceſe of CANTERBURY

Ontains three Parts in four of the County of Kent, beſides about an hundred Peculiars in other Dioceſes, which being here ſpecified I need not farther particularize them.

Here is only one Archdeaconry, viz. Canterbury, valued for Firſt-Fruits, An. 1534. at 163*l.* 1*s.* 10*d.* It is endowed with the Impropriations of Hackington, Lymme, Weſtbitb, Dodington, Linſted, Tenham, SANDWICH and Iwade.

The Members of the Cathedral, according to the Foundation An. 1541. are, as I am informed, A Dean, twelve Prebendaries or major Canons, fix Preachers, fix minor Canons, fix Subſtitutes, twelve Lay Clerks or Singing Men, one of which is Organist, a Maſter of the Choristers, which are in number Ten, Two Maſters of the Grammar-School, fifty Scholars, twelve Almsmen, two Virgers, two Veſtry keepers, with other inferior Officers, as Bellringers, &c.

But I shall here in this first Introduction, exhibit the Words of King Henry the Eighth's Statutes.

Imprimis Statuimus & Ordinamus, ut sint perpetuò in dicta Ecclesiâ nostrâ [Cantuar.] unus Decanus, duodecim Canonici seu Præbendarii, unus Lector Theologicæ Lectionis, sex Concionatores; Minores Canonici & Clerici & Laici viginti quatuor; unus Magister Choristarum, decem Choristæ, duo Informatores Puerorum in Grammatica, quorum unus sit Præceptor, alter Sub-præceptor, quinquaginta Pueri in Grammaticâ Erudiendi, duodecim Pauperes de sumptibus Dictæ Ecclesiæ alendi, duo Virgiferi, duo Subsacristæ, quatuor Campanarum Pulsatores, unus Custos Aulae, duo Fanitores, quorum unus sit Barbitonsor; unus Obsonator, duo Pincernæ, duo Coci: Qui quidem in Eâdem Ecclesiâ numero præscripto unusquisque suo ordine juxta statuta & ordinationes nostras sedulo inserviant.

Tho' there has been more wrote of this Cathedral than any other whatsoever, yet have none of the Kentish Historians, who have done Honour to their native Country, given us any particular Account of the Diocese; neither are the Patrons and Appropriations accounted for in Harris's History of Kent, who, as a learned Author informs us, republished Anno 1719, with very small Additions and Alterations, little more than what had been already set forth by Lambard, Somner, Philpott, Kilborn, Batteley, the former Topographers.

And notwithstanding Mr. Batteley's elaborate History of Canterbury, printed Anno 1703, in a small Character, of near 600 Pages in Folio, adorned with several fair Sculptures of the Cathedral, with an Account of the Archbishops, Priors, Deans, Archdeacons, and Prebendaries, was, Anno 1726, most pompously reprinted (with what related to the Cathedral) with numerous Additions to the Lives and Series of the Archbishops, Priors, Deans, Archdeacons and Prebendaries, at a very great Expence to the Editors, at the Price of Two Guineas Subscription; and no Cost spared in exhibiting Draughts of the Cathedral, within side and without, and representing all the Monuments, and every Thing remarkable in sixty Copper-Plates exquisitely well Engraven: Yet hath no notice been taken of the Diocese in that Work; nor of other Dioceses in the particular Descriptions of these very Cathedrals here set forth.

Wherefore as it has fallen to the Province of a Stranger to attempt it, He humbly hopes that Allowances will be made for any Errors He has committed in what He has here endeavoured in this and the other Dioceses.

FINIS Dioc' Cantuar' infra propriam Archidiaconatum Cantuariensem.

HAVING gone through the proper District of the Archdeaconry of Canterbury, in the County of Kent, which contains about 283 Churches and Chapels, as here given (tho' those mark'd thus * are Exempts, and belong to the immediate and sole Jurisdiction of the Archbishop) I come to consider the Peculiars in other Dioceses,

Dioceses, subordinate to the Metropolitan See of Canterbury: And I shall here first begin with Rochester, and place that before London Diocese, in order to exhibit the Parishes, within each respective County, as entire together as my Design will permit, which will be interrupted very little, except by the Peculiars; which being about an hundred in number disjoin the County of Kent: And as some few Peculiars lie in other Dioceses, as London, Winchester, Chichester, (besides those of Rochester) I shall either by References, or giving them twice over, so distinguish every County, that all the Parishes belonging to it will be contained within its Bounds, and may be view'd at once, and remark'd by the most indifferent Observer.

THe Diocese of Rochester contains the Deanries of Dartford, Malling, and Rochester, all in the County of Kent, under one Archdeaconry, viz. Rochester. Rated for First-Fruits at 34*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* It has also one Parish in the County of Cambridge, viz. Iselham; and another in the County of Suffolk, viz. Freckenham.

The Cathedral of Rochester has a Dean, six Prebendaries or major Canons, six minor Canons, a Deacon, Subdeacon, Master of the Choristers, eight Choristers, two Masters of the Grammar-School, twenty Scholars, six Almsmen, two Sextons, two Vergers, two Cooks, a Porter and a Barber; establish'd by King Henry the Eighth's Foundation, Anno 1541, who, as he had done at Canterbury, converted here also the Prior and Monks into a College of Seculars.

There was, Anno 1717, printed in 8vo the History and Antiquities of this Cathedral, containing, (as the Title sets forth) The local Statutes of the Church, the Inscriptions on the Monuments, Tombs and Gravestones; an account of the Bishops, Priors, Deans and Archdeacons; with some original Papers relating to the Church and Diocese of Rochester. But not so much as the Names of the Parishes belonging to it, or their Patrons or Dedications, has been regularly touch'd on, in this or any other History of it; neither are they taken the least notice of by Mr. Weaver in his Parochial Monuments in the County of Kent, in the Dioceses of Canterbury and Rochester.

FINIS Archidiaconatus Sancti Albani. Total of Churches and Chapels in it 26.

FINIS Dioecesis London. Total of Churches and Chapels in it about 665.

N. B. The remaining Parishes in the County of Hertford in London Diocese, are given page 27. in Braughing Deanry in Middlesex Archdeaconry; and all the rest of that County comprised in the Deanries of Baldock, Barkhamsted, Hertford and Hitchen, being in Lincoln Diocese, may be found in the Survey of Lincoln Cathedral already printed under Huntingdon Archdeaconry.

Contains the whole County of Southampton, with the Isle of Wight, and one Parish in Wiltshire, viz. Witterbury: It has also all Surrey, except 11 Churches and Chapels in Croydon Deanry, which are Peculiars of the See of Canterbury. Here are Two Archdeacons, viz. 1. Winchester, valu'd at 67 l. 15 s. 2d. for First-Fruits, which has all the Deanries in the County of Southampton and the Isle of Wight.

2. Surrey, which has all the Deanries in the County of Surrey, the corps of which is the Rectory of Farnham; and it is rated for First-Fruits at 91 l. 3 s. 6 d.

N. B. To this Diocese are still accounted to belong the Isles of Jersey and Guernsey, also some Parishes in France about Calais, before the loss of that Place, as may be seen in the old Valor printed 1685, which gives us the Names of them.

The Members of this Cathedral are a Dean, twelve Prebendaries, six Minor Canons, ten Singing Men, a Master and eight Choristers, two Virgers, three Sextons or Bell-ringers, and ten Beadsmen, as I am inform'd. For a more particular account thereof see an Hist. of the Antiq. of it printed 1715. containing all the Inscript. on the Tombs and Monuments, with an account of the Bishops, Priors, Deans, Archdeacons, and Prebendaries; begun by Henry Earl of Clarendon, and continued by Mr. Sam. Gale, who has given in it a Draught of the Church, and all its principal Monuments, and other things worth notice in 18 Sculptures. There was likewise printed An. 1718. in 5 Vols. 8vo. the Natural History and Antiq. of the County of Surrey, containing the monumental Inscriptions in the Parish Churches; but the Patronages and Dedications of them is very imperfectly handled, and the generality of them omitted: Wherefore this Account will be found Supplementary in many respects, to render this and some other Books of Antiquities lately printed more perfect and compleat.

FINIS Archidiaconatus Surrey.

P

Total

Archdeaconry of SURREY.

Total of Churches and Chapels in this Archdeaconry 138.

FINIS Dioecesis Winton.

Total of Churches and Chapels in both Archdeaconries 415.

N. B. In the County of Surrey are, besides the abovementioned 138 Churches and Chapels, 11 more; but these being all Peculiars of the See of Canterbury, and exempt from the Diocese of Winchester, are given pag. 13, 14. in the Jurisdiction of Canterbury, and so need not be repeated here, they all being comprised in the Deanry of Croydon.

Contains the whole County of Sussex, except about 22 Peculiars belonging to the See of Canterbury, the Names of which see p. 14. of this Account.

Here are two Archdeaconries, the District of both which are comprised within the County of Sussex; the first of which, viz. Chichester valued at 38*l.* 3*s.* 4*d.* for First-Fruits, contains the Deanries of Chichester, Arundel, Boxgrave, Midhurst, and Sturington. And the other, viz. Lewes, valued at 39*l.* 15*s.* comprises the Deanries of Dallington, Hastings, Lewes, and Pevensey.

The Members of this Cathedral are a Dean, Precentor, Chancellor, Treasurer, two Archdeacons, 31 Prebendaries, one of which is stiled Subdean, four Priest Vicars, an Organist, six Singing-men, six Choristers, a Master of the Grammar-School, two Virgers, four Bellringers and other Officers: The number of Residentiaries are only four, exclusive of the Dean, chosen out of the Dignitaries and Prebendaries.

There was, Anno 1717, an account printed of the monumental Inscriptions in this Cathedral, together with those of Worcester and Lichfield; how defective that was, may be seen in the second Volume of Abbies printed soon after, where the dimensions of this and all the other Cathedrals are given; which renders the repeating of them here needless: And a description of their Monuments being also there touched upon, may be referr'd to in that Account, especially as it might be deem'd superfluous in the same Author to print things with little Alteration twice over.

FINIS Archidiaconatus Lewes.

Total of Churches and Chapels here given, 152.

FINIS Dioecesis Cicestr.

Total of Churches &c. in this Account, 302.

N. B. The remaining Churches and Chapels in Suffex, in number 22, being Peculiars of the See of Canterbury, and exempt from the Bishop of Chichester's Jurisdiction, may be seen pag. 14. in Canterbury Diocese.

Diocese

Contains all the whole County of Norfolk, except Emneth, which belongs to Ely; and all Suffolk, except Freckenham, which belongs to Rocheſter, and Hadleigh, Monks Illeigh and Moulton, which are Peculiars to the See of Canterbury.

It has alſo 16 Churches and Chapels in Cambridgeſhire, as is here mention'd about p. 98. in Sudbury Archdeaconry. In it are Four Archdeaconries, viz.

1. Norwich, valued at 71*l.* 1*s.* 3*d.* which has theſe Deanries, viz. Norwich, Blofeild, Beccles, Briſley, Flegg, Holt, Ingworth, Lynn, Sparham, Taverham, Thetford, Toftrees, and Walsingham.

2. Norfolk, valued at 143*l.* 8*s.* 3*d.* which alone has a Corſe, viz. Corſton Rectory, but it is of ſo ſmall value that the Archdeacon lets the Miniſter have it: Here are theſe Deanries, Brooke, Burnham, Cranewiſe, Depwade, Fincham, Hingham, Hitcham, Humbleyard, Reddenhall, Repps, Rockland, and Waxton. All theſe Deanries in both Archdeaconries are in the County of Norfolk.

3. Sudbury, valued at 76*l.* 9*s.* 4*d.* which has B'ackborne, Clare, (Fordham in the Coun. of Suffolk and Cambridge) Hartiſmere, Stow, Sudbury, The dwaiſtre, Thinghoe.

4. Suffolk, valued at 89*l.* 2*s.* 1*d.* which has Bosmere, Carleford, Claydon, Colneſ, Dunwich, Hoxne, Ipswich, Loſe, Lothingland, Orford, Sampford, South Elmeham, Wangford, Wilsford.

The Archdeacon of Suffolk, tho' he has no Impropriation, has a large Houſe in Ipswich, near St. Mary-Tower Church.

There was, Anno 1712, publiſh'd in an Octavo Volume, a very curious Account of the Antiquities of this Cathedral, with all the monumental Inſcriptions in it, with 18 Draughts of the moſt conſiderable Monuments, &c. and Series of the Biſhops, Priors, Deans, Archdeacons, Chancellors of the Diocese, and Prebendaries in every Stall. And, Anno 1715, at the end of the Norfolk Poll, is printed the reſpective Livings in that County, with their Patrons.

The number of Members of the Cathedral are, as I learn, a Dean, ſix major Canons or Prebendaries, ſix minor Canons, eight Lay Clerks or Singing Men, a Maſter, eight Chorifters, two Virgers, a Sacriſt, two Sub-Sacriſts or Bell-ringers, ſix Almsmen.

For a farther Account of this Diocese, I may alſo refer to Weaver's Funeral Monuments in the Counties of Norfolk and Suffolk.

Contains all the entire County of Wilts, except the Parish of Kingswood, which belongs to Gloucester Archdeaconry and Diocese; and Whitesbury Parish, which is, in like manner, in Winchester Diocese.

It has likewise all Berkshire, except Shilton, alias Chilton, in Witney Deanry, which is in Oxford Diocese; as is part of Langford Parish, with its Chapelry of Little Faringdon, that being a Prebend of Lincoln (viz. Langford) a Peculiar to the Church of Lincoln. It has, lastly, several Peculiars of its own in Dorsetshire, still reserved to its Jurisdiction upon the taking away that County and Archdeaconry and laying it to the new founded See of Bristol, An. 1542.

Here are Three Archdeaconries, viz. First, SALISBURY, valued at 70*l.* 11*s.* 8*d.* which comprises these Deanries, viz. Salisbury, Ambrosbury, Chalk, Pottern, Wilton, and Wily, all in the County of Wilts.

Secondly, WILTS, valued at 78*l.* 7*s.* 2*d.* with the Rectory of Myny annex, which has these Deanries, Avebury, Cricklade, Malmsbury, and Marlborough, all likewise in the County of Wilts.

Thirdly, BERKS, valued at 59*l.* 18*s.* 4*d.* and at 71*l.* 11*s.* 8*d.* with the Rectory of North Moreton annex, which contains the Deanries of Abingdon, Newbury, Reading, and Wallingford, all in the County of Berks.

The Members of the Cathedral of SALISBURY are, A Dean, Chanter, Chancellor, Treasurer, three Archdeacons, (viz. of Sarum, Wilts, Berks, as aforesaid) a Subdean, Subchanter, 45 Prebendaries at large; of which the Dean, with six others indifferently chosen out of the Dignitaries and Prebendaries, are Residentiaries, and commonly stiled Canonici Majores.

The other Members are six petty or minor Canons, an Organist, six Singing-men, six Choristers, besides Sextons, Virgers, and other inferior Officers.

There was, Anno 1719, printed in an 8*vo* Vol. an account of all the Monuments in this Cathedral, with Lists of the Dignitaries and Prebendaries in each Stall, but those of the Prebendaries are imperfect; at the end of which is Dean Pierce's Controversial Dispute with Bishop Ward, in which several Antiquities of the Church are discussed; and at the beginning is prefixed, after some Remarks of the Antiquities of it, Sir Christopher Wren's Architectonical Account of the Fabrick, with some Directions for the Repair of it, by way of Report made to the Dean and Chapter.

And tho' in the aforesaid Year 1719, there was published in three Volumes in 8*vo*, an Account of the Antiquities of Berkshire, and the Monumental Inscriptions in its Churches, yet is the same very defective, in respect to the Patrons and Dedications of Churches.

Total of Churches and Chapels in this Archdeaconry is about 184, but some of these are Exempts.

Here is also in Berks the Church of Langford cum Capella Farrington parva, which belongs to Lincoln Diocese and is there accounted for; as does also Chilton alias Shilton V. to Oxford Diocese. These are in Whitney Deanry.

To this Diocese also may be added, tho' already printed in the Survey of Bristol Cathedral (because they still remain as Peculiars to the Church of Salisbury) the following Churches and Chapels in the County of Dorset, which entire County was, till 1542, all of it comprehended in Salisbury Diocese.

Total of all the Churches and Chapels, including the Exempts about 550.

Diocese

CONTAINS all Somersetshire, except Holy Cross, alias the Temple Church, St. Mary Radcliff, and St. Thomas, with Leigh, (alias Abbats Leigh, Holy Trinity) Chapels to Bedminster in the County of Somerset; which three first lying in Bristol City belong to that Diocese, as do all the other Bristol Churches, in number fifteen, besides the Cathedral; tho' they are in the antient Limits of Glocestershire, and were ever reckon'd within that County, till such time as Bristol became a County and a City of itself. Here are Three Archdeaconries, viz.

1. Wells, which includes these Deanries, Axbridge, Carey, Frome, Ilchester, Merston, Pawlet, cum Glastonbury Jurisdiction, taken originally out of that Deanry. The Corpse of this Archdeaconry valued for First-Fruits at 144 l. 2 s. 1 d. is the Appropriations of Huish and Barrow Parsonages.

2. Bath, rated 1534, 26 Henry VIII. at 25 l. 2 s. 11 d. which is endowed with the Rectory of Stanton-drew, and has only these two Deanries belonging to it, viz. Bath and Bedminster.

3. Taunton, which comprises the Deanries of Bridgewater, Crookhorn, Dunster and Taunton, and pays for First-Fruits, with the Prebend of Milverton prima annex, 83 l. 7 s. 6 d.

The Members of the Cathedral are, as I learn, a Dean, Precentor, Chancellor, Treasurer, Subdean, three Archdeacons, 49 Prebendaries; tho' some of the Prebends being annex to, and included within the Dignitaries, reduces the regular stated number to 50, according to the fitting up the Stalls in the Choir, where are only, as the Titles set forth, 25 on each side.

The other Members are, four Priest Vicars, eight Lay Vicars, or Singing-men, an Organist, six Choristers, a Sub-Treasurer, a Sacrist, a Master of the Grammar-School, a Master of the Choristers, with about six other Officers, viz. Virgers, Sextons, &c.

The number of the Residentiaries are seven, besides the Dean, who is always one, these are chosen by the Chapter out of the Prebendaries, who are qualified by being possessed of Houses or Scites of Houses within the Liberty of the Church and Close.

Tho' this seems to be the only Cathedral of which nothing has appear'd in Print, yet it may boast, that as many Materials have been gathered towards an History of it as any Church whatsoever; for besides what some of its present learned Members have, with indefatigable pains, collected, who 'tis to be hoped will soon oblige the Publick, as they are well enabled, with a most accurate Description of it in all its Branches, there yet remains, as I am inform'd, besides what they have so lately done, repositied in the Cathedral Library at Wells, a large Folio History of this Church drawn up in Five Parts by Mr. Chiles, Secretary to Bishop Mew, fairly transcrib'd for the Press, with a Dedication to that Prelate: The publication of which, as I presume, being prevented by the Author's Patron's Translation to Winchester, Anno 1684. became afterwards farther deferred by the Troubles that ensued in the succeeding Times; and probably upon Mr. Chiles Death was totally laid aside.

In the Cottonian Library there is likewise a Transcript of the Inscriptions upon the Tombs and Gravestones, in Wells Cathedral, that existed about 150 Years agoe, most of which have since been spoiled of their Brasses.

As to its united Cathedral of Bath, there was An. 1719, an History of its Antiquities publish'd in an 8vo. with all the Inscriptions on its Monuments and Gravestones; included in the same Volume with a like account of Salisbury Cathedral.

FINIS Archidiaconatus Taunton. Total of Churches and Chapels 182.

FINIS Dioecesis Batho Wellensis.

Total of Churches and Chapels in the whole Diocese here specified about 503.

Contains the entire Counties of Devon and Cornwall, and has these Four Archdeaconries belonging to it.

First, Exeter, valued for First-Fruits at 60*l.* 15*s.* 10*d.* which has these Deanries, Exeter, Ailesbear, Cadbury, Dunkswell, Dunsford, Honyton, Plimptree, Tiverton.

Secondly, Barnstable, rated at 49*l.* which contains Barnstable, Chumleigh, Hartland, South Moulton, Shirwell, and Torrington Deanries.

Thirdly, Totness, valued at 37*l.* 19*s.* 7*d.* which has Hallisworthy, Ipplepen, Moreton, Plimpton, Tamerton, Tavestock, Totness, and Woodleigh Deanries.

All these three Archdeaconries are in the County of Devon.

Fourthly, Cornwall, which has all that County, and is rated at 50*l.* 6*s.* 5*d.* and has these Deanries, viz. East, Kerrier, Penwith, Powder, Pider, Trigg major and Trigg minor, and West.

The Members of Exeter Cathedral are, a Dean, Precentor, Chancellor, Treasurer, Subdean, four Archdeacons (as abovesaid), twenty four Prebendaries, four Priest Vicars, eight Lay Vicars, one of which is Organist, six Secondaries, ten Choristers, two Virgers, a Bellringer and Porter : Here is also a Master of the Grammar-School. The number of Residentiaries are nine, including the Dean, who has a right to be always one : These are chosen out of the Dignitaries and Prebendaries.

As to the Accounts of this Cathedral and Diocese, see Prince's Worthies of Devon in Folio, and Isaack's Antiquities of Exeter, where may be found the monumental Inscriptions of the eminent Persons interred in the Cathedral ; and for a farther Account of the Bishops, I may refer to Hooker's History printed in Hollingshead's Chronicle. There has been likewise published in two Volumes in Octavo, Mr. Rishden's Survey of Devonshire. And in a Quarto Volume is exhibited a Survey of Cornwall, by Mr. Carew, which has met with two Editions. And in the Year 1728 was, in another Quarto set forth, the Topographical and Historical Description of Cornwall by the Perambulation View and Delineation of John Norden. But in none of these is any Account of the Diocese given in any respect. And tho' the Author of the Magna Britannia has furnish'd out Lists of the Livings, and the Incumbents and Patrons of them in Devonshire and Cornwall, yet will the same be found, on Examination, to be erroneous in some Particulars, and imperfect in others. However, it is to be wished, that the Design had been carried on thro' every County, for that would have rendred the Undertaking very valuable, and recommended it to the Publick, and thereby given opportunity to correct the Defects. Which is the earnest View and Hopes of the Publisher of these Collections, set forth by him with that Prospect and Intent.

Total of Churches and Chapels in it, but some ruined, 241.

*FINIS Dioecesis Exon.*Total of Churches and Chapels in the whole Diocese, in the two Counties of Devon and Cornwall, as in this Account, 725.

AS I have gone thro' these Nine Dioceses, and in my former Volumes of Cathedrals (printed in the same Character as this) in the Years 1727 and 1730, given an account of the other Thirteen English Dioceses, I was induced, and farther prevail'd on, by reason of the smallness of this Book, to add to it (in order to include and bind together in Two Volumes, all the Churches and Chapels in Canterbury Province) the Four Welsh Dioceses, which having been wrested from the ancient metropolitical See of St. David seems, by length of Time, subjected to the Jurisdiction of Canterbury: And this I hope I may be allow'd doing, notwithstanding they are in some measure already given in the respective Surveys of each Church, printed in Four small Octavo's in the Years 1717, 1719, 1720, and 1721, forasmuch as they were not then set forth in this Method; nor indeed at all attempted or endeavoured in the two first published Dioceses, viz. St. Davids and Landaff, till very lately, which having fallen into few hands, and only some Copies printed seperate, it is presumed that the repeating them here may tend to the better perfecting these Volumes, and be the rather accepted, inasmuch as it renders the number of Dioceses Thirteen in this Volume, agreeable to the other Thirteen published in the Years 1727 and 1730, as abovementioned.

Diocese of St. DAVID

Contains the whole Counties of Pembroke, Cardigan, Carmarthen and Brecknock; all Radnorshire, except old and new Radnor, Presteygne, Norton, Knighton and Michael Church Arrow, which belong to Hereford: It has also about a fourth part of Glamorganshire, eleven Churches and Chapels in the County of Hereford, two in the County of Montgomery, and three in the County of Monmouth, under these Four Archdeaconries.

First, St. David, which has three Deanries, viz. Pebidiawke, Dongledy, Pembroke and Rhose, all in the County of Pembroke.

Secondly, Brecknock, which has these Deanries, viz. Brecknock, first, second and third part, Bwelt, and Hay in the County of Brecknock, Elwel and Melineth in the County of Radnor, under which last Deanry, viz. Melineth, are comprised the Montgomery and Monmouthshire Parishes, as are the Herefordshire ones in Hay Deanry.

Thirdly, Carmarthen, which has these Deanries, viz. Carmarthen (in which are two Parishes comprehended in the County of Pembroke) Kidwelly, Llandeilo alias Llangattock, all in the County of Carmarthen, and Gower Deanry in the Co. of Glamorgan.

Fourthly, Cardigan, which has these Deanries, Subayron and ultra Aywn alias Cardigan in the County of Cardigan; Kemmes and Emlin in the County of Pembroke; in which last Deanry are three Parishes in the County of Carmarthen.

The number of Parishes according to our printed Accounts are 308, in which are reckoned 120 Improvements, tho' according to this Account here are no less than 500 Churches and Chapels. The Clergies Tenths amount to 336*l.* 14*s.* 10*d.* And the First-Fruits of the Bishoprick, which was considerably diminish'd by Bishop Barlow, are now only 426*l.* 2*s.* 1*d.*

The Members of the Cathedral are, the Bishop, who is Quasi-Decanus (having the Decanal Stall in the Choir, as well as a most stately Throne) A Precentor, Chancellor, Treasurer, four Archdeacons, eight Prebendaries, six Canons curial, being in all twenty two, which compose the number of the Prebendaries.

The other Members are a Subchanter, four Priest Vicars, four Lay Vicars or Singingmen, an Organist, four Choristers, a Master of the Grammar-School, a Virger, Porter, Sexton, and a Keeper of the Church in Prayer time, being in all forty one.

Of the twenty two Prebendaries abovementioned the Precentor, Chancellor, and Treasurer are stiled Residentiarii nati, being so by virtue of their Places. Besides these there are three other Canons chosen out of the Archdeacons, Prebendaries, and Canons curial, under which six Residentiaries, namely, the Precentor, Chancellor, Treasurer, and the said three elected Canons (who ought here, according to the Statutes, regularly to reside) is the Government of the Church.

COntains above three parts in four of the County of Glamorgan, all Monmouthshire, except Dixton Welsh, Bicknor, St. Mary's Church in Monmouth, and part of Welsh Newton Parish, which belong to Hereford Diocese, as Dce, Comjoy, Oldcastle, and Llanthony to St. David's.

In it are these Deanries, Landaff, Groneath, alias Cowbridge, in the County of Glamorgan; Abergavenny, Newport, Netherwent, Uske, in the County of Monmouth; all under one Archdeacon, viz. of Landaff.

The number of Parishes in this District, according to Camden, Heylin, &c. are 177, whereof, as they tell us, 98 are ImproPRIATIONS; tho' in my Account, here are including Churches and Chapels, 104 in Glamorganshire, and 133 in Monmouthshire; so the total in both Counties is 237.

The Clergy's Tenths amount to 155 l. 5 s. 4 d. being not 20 s. more than what the Bishoprick pays for First-Fruits, that being rated at 154 l. 14 s. 1 d.

The Members of the Cathedral are, A Bishop, who, in the Statutes (as 'tis said) is stiled Quasi Decanus, (and has, besides the Episcopal Throne, the Decanal Stall in the Choir) an Archdeacon, Treasurer, Chancellor, Precentor, who, with nine Prebendaries, making in all fourteen, constitute the Chapter. The other Members are, Two Priest-Vicars, a Schoolmaster, Virger, and Bellringer. Here were, 'till about the Year 1696, four Lay-Vicars, an Organist, four Choristers, and a Chief or Latin Schoolmaster: But these being then put down, or laid aside, on pretext of applying their Stipends towards repairing the Fabrick of the Cathedral, their Salaries or Dividends have been, as 'tis commonly reported in these Parts, ever since shared and applied to augment the Income of the abovesaid fourteen Members of the Chapter, notwithstanding they have never resided, and have neglected repairing the Cathedral.

Comprehends the whole County of Anglesey, all Carnarvanshire except Llysvaen, Elgwys Rbosc, and Llangustenin, which appertain to St. Asaph: It has also the better half of Merionethshire, and the Deanries of Dyffrynclwdd in Denbighshire, and Arwstley in Montgomeryshire.

The Archdeaconries are no less than three, viz.

First, Bangor, which contains the Deanries of Arvon, Arlechwyd and Llynn, all Co. Carnarvan.

Second, Anglesey, which comprises the Deanries of Lliwan and Talybolion, Menai and Malltrayeth, Twrilyn and Tyndaethwy, all Co. Anglesey.

Third, Merioneth, which has the Deanries of Evioneth, Co. Carnarvan; Efti-maner and Arduwy, Co. Merioneth.

But the two first of these, viz. Bangor and Anglesey, are swallowed up, and annexed to the Bishoprick, by Act of Parliament in the Year 1685; and so only Merioneth Archdeaconry is collected or instituted to.

As to the Deanries of Dyffrynclwd Co. Denbigh, and Arwstly Co. Montgomery, they were under no Archdeaconry, but are subjected solely to the Bishops immediate Jurisdiction.

The Number of Parishes, according to Heylin, in this District, are 107, of which 36, as He tells us, are impropriated; tho' in my Account, including Chapels, here are 195. The value of the Bishoprick is computed at, but 131*l.* 16*s.* 4*d.* and the Tenths of the Clergy at only 151*l.* 14*s.* 3*d.* being one of the smallest valuations of any in the Kingdom.

The Cathedral of Bangor has a Dean, three Archdeacons, viz. Bangor, Anglesey, and Merioneth; but the two first of these, as already observed, are annexed to the Bishoprick: The other Members are a Treasurer, and two endowed Prebends, viz. of Llanvair, and Pennynned; And five unendowed ones called by the names of the Precentor, Chancellor, Canonicus Primus, Secundus, Tertius, these twelve constitute the Chapter.

The Interior Members are two Priest Vicars Choral, an Organist, Four Singing Men, Four Choristers, a Virger, Sexton, and Bellringer.

By some Statutes of the Free-school, made Tempore Reginae Elizabethæ, there are ten Boys belonging to that School appointed to wear Surplices, and are ordered to attend the Choir.

AS I have in my other Volumes of CATHEDRALS exhibited a Review at the end of them, by way of Correction and Supplement, so I have the same Reason to do it here, (as I have intimated in the Preface) and to bespeak the candid Readers consulting this Appendix for correction of the Errors and Deficiencies in his perusal and turning over the Dioceses here specified, viz.

P. 3. Wingham is an Exempt. The Patron of WYE is the Earl of Winchelsea, and of Bennenden Sir John Norris; and of Charing the Chapter of St. Pauls Lond. who have also the Rectory which was a Sinecure before 1542. ASHFORD was appropriated to Leeds. In TENTERDEN is a Chapel of Ease called Smallbith.

P. 4. Buckland and DOVER two Churches are Exempts. The Gift of St. Mary's Dover is in the Parishioners. Omitted in Dover Deanry Hawking R. St. Michael, and Hougham V. St. Laurence, which was appropriated to Dover Priory, the Archbishop Patron of both Churches.

P. 5. Nunnington cum Wymondswold are both given already in their proper Deanry of Bregge. Fairfeild is an Exempt. For Petling read Postling. The Patronage of Burmarsh is in the Crown; and of Kennerton in Moyle Breton, Esq;

P. 6. Lydde and Boughton-Blean are Exempts, as is New ROMNEY and not Old Romney. Omitted, Midley R. Patron Mr. Eve of that and Buckland which are both demolish'd Churches, but still presented to. After Shaddockberst add R.
